Mel Clay (1932-2011)

Writer, Actor, and self proclaimed Poet, Pimp, & Police Informer, Clay (born Melvin Berger) was utterly original and never sold out. He worked with The Living Theatre for some years, & was also on the Tangier/Amsterdam/Kathmandu circuit before finally settling in San Francisco in 1978. His plays would occasionally be performed at only the best and of course most obscure underground theaters, including his own Marilyn Monroe Memorial Theater. We can only hope his unpublished novels (Morocco Baroque, Calcutta & a Woman Reading Borges) may eventually see the light of day.

Body Lightning. San Francisco: Androgyne, 1983. Wrappers. Short Stories. Recommended. Near fine. $20

xochi publications

Xochi publications began in Brisbane, Australia in 2000. We were thrilled to be asked to be involved in the first publication, an edition of Gysin's Who Runs May Read, co-published with Inkblot. The 99 copies sold out quickly and thus an expanded edition was done in 2001 (also 99 copies, and a few remain!) Xochi then turned to the short fictions of Marvin Barnes, of whose brilliant Salsa & Stoush we have the few remaining copies. And then, as you may know, was the brilliant William S. Burroughs' Unforgettable Characters, which also sold out quickly (123 copies). Fortunately, an expanded edition was published by Inkblot in 2013.

Lesser known are the 3 volumes of one of the most brilliant journals of the last 43 years: xochi 23. All available right here! Right now!

xochi 23 volume 1. Brisbane: xochi, 2004. Wrappers. 96 pages. Cover by Brion Gysin. Contents include Fetish Soup by Nabolum Dramane, an interview with Steve Lacy by Theo Green, The Mountains of London by Brion Gysin, Charles Bukowski answers 10 easy questions, The Insect Code by Jurgen Ploog and a lengthy, informative interview with Daevid Allen, founder of Gong. Highly recommended, and scarce, we have only one copy for sale! $40

xochi 23 volume 2. Brisbane: xochi, 2006. Wrappers. 128 pages. With Tam Patton's interview with guitarist Mike Cooper, Mel Clay interviews Celine in hell, an interview with Sirone, Gabriele D'Annunzio's Fiuman Adventure, and Dr Philip Schuyler on the field recordings of Paul Bowles. Illustrated. With 25 minute disc of Bowles' Moroccan recordings. As before, we have only one of these for sale. Scarce! $50

xochi 23 volume 3. Brisbane: xochi, 2012. Wrappers. 60 pages. Jack Johnson versus Arthur Cravan by Marisa Giorgi, Jack Sargeant on fifty years of Naked Lunch, interviews with Peter Brotzmann and Carl Weissner, and an excerpt from Stephen Davis' To Marrakech by Aeroplane. Recommended! $25

Blue 59

San Francisco: blue 59, 1982. Wrappers. 10 pages. A truly wonderful journal, and a huge spark for Inkblot. Edited by Paul Riley. While there aren't enough gurls in this rag, we sure love it. With contributions from Riley, Theo Green, Jay Stebley, Tilton, and Wells. Black and white cover. Probably limited to 100 copies, some of which were housed in blue slipcovers. We offer the last remaining copies. In fact, for any purchase of more than $50 from this catalogue we will award you with a copy!! How can you lose!?! Else copies are $10 each.

Throb

One of the great mags of the early 1970s, edited by F.A. Nettelbeck. Only 2 issues, and we offer the few remaining sets.

Issue 1: Manhattan Beach, CA: Horsehead Nebula Press, 1971. Stapled wrappers. 48 pp. With contributions by Nettelbeck, Charles Bukowski, J. Mitchell Rhodes, Pete Fenton. Douglas Blazek answers ten easy questions!

Issue 2: Boulder Creek, CA: Horsehead Nebula Press, 1971. Stapled wrappers. With contributions from Nettelbeck, Al Masarik, d.r. wagner, Douglas Blazek, Charles Bukowski answers ten easy questions and much more. Cover by Lawrence Ferlinghetti.

Both issues mint condition. The set:

Ins & Outs

Edited by Eddie Woods in Amsterdam 1978-1980. One of our all time favourite mags!! And another real spark for Inkblot. While there were only the 4 issues (plus anthology Crippled Warlords) its influence is still valid. Highly recommended. We offer three of the issues.

Ins & Outs issue 2. Amsterdam, 1978. Stapled wrappers. 42 pp. With illustrations. Contributions from Steef Davidson, Walter Q. Foxx, The Myth of the Male Orgasm from Mel Clay, Hans Plomp, Ira Cohen, Simon Vinkenoog and more. Very good to near fine.

Ins & Outs issue 3. Amsterdam, 1978. Stapled wrappers. 62 pp. Illustrated. With Allen Ginsberg, Eddie Woods, Ira Cohen, William Levy, Rachel Pollack, Simon Vinkenoog, Ganesh Baba, Walter Q. Foxx, & more. Very good condition, minor wear.

$25

Ins & Outs issue 4/5. Perfect bound wrappers. 112 pp. Issued in 1980. The best issue of any little mag. We love it! Sadly, the last issue of Ins and Outs. They're all here, folks: Mel Clay, Paul Bowles, Gerard Malanga, Ira Cohen, Hans Plomp, Lynne Tillman, Ferlinghetti, Akbar del Piombo, Corso, Bob Kaufmann, etc., etc. A very good copy, Solid spine, minor wear.

$30

Olympia

One of the best journals from the early 1960s. Four issues edited by Maurice Girodias.

Issue 1. Paris, 1962. Wrappers. 80 pp. Illustrated. This may be the best of the lot. With 10 Episodes from the Soft Machine by William Burroughs. Plus contributions from Terry Southern, Sanche de Gramont (Ted Morgan), Lawrence Durrell, J.P Donleavy (an unpublished chapter from The Ginger Man) and others. Very good to near fine.

Recommended.

Issue 2. Paris, 1962. Wrappers. 80 pp. Brion Gysin/Ian Sommerville cover! With Terry Southern, Julio Cortázar, Dreamachine/Flicker articles by Gysin and Sommerville, Matthew Carney and more. This copy lacks the Dreamachine plans. About very good, with general wear.

$40

Issue 3. Paris, 1962. This issue actually entitled The NEW Olympia. Wrappers. 80 pp. With Terry Southern, Henry Miller, Jonathan Kozol, Paul Abelmann, and Jascha Kessler. About very good, some spine wear. $35

Issue 4. Paris, 1963. Wrappers. 96 pp. Illustrated. Selections from The Ticket that Exploded by William Burroughs, 3 poems from Gregory Corso, Claire Rabe, Robert Baldock, Nazil Nour, Walter Lowenfels, James Sherwood. This copy good at best – spine wear, rubbing, foxing. $25

Third Rail

Edited by Uri Hertz. One of the better journals from the 1980s.

Third Rail 6. Los Angeles, 1984. Wrappers. 98 pp. With cover photo of Julian Beck and Judith Malina. Illustrated. Includes an interview with William S. Burroughs, Ira Cohen, David Amram, Tristan Tzara, Artaud and much more. Highly recommended! $20

Inkblot

Inkblot publications began in Berkeley, California in 1982, primarily to publish the works of Brion Gysin, and of Theo Green. Shortly thereafter operations moved to Oakland, where they stayed until 1999, when all was moved to Providence, Rhode Island, where the press was revived in 2007, and again in 2010. and continues to this day, tho who knows for how long. The magazine, Inkblot, published 10 issues from 1983-1989, and issue 11 gave birth in 2007. Only time will tell if there will be others.

Please inquire for contributor info. All issues include F.A. Nettelbeck but for issue 8.

A full set of the magazine (issues 1-11) can be yours for only $150
